* Comment. The information confirms the depot of the depot of the Eighth Gds Army, [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] until mid-September 1951. The installation is located on the premises of the Deuta plant on Marschnerstrasse and in the warehouse of the former Landwirtschaftliche Genossenschaft (agricultural association). The motor vehicles belong to headquarters units of the Eighth Gds Army and the 13th AAA Div of the Eighth Gds Army.

 Comment. The information confirms the Soviet motor vehicle park of the Eighth Gds Army, [REDACTED], on the premises of the Groma typewriter factory, Markersdorf, until late July 1951. The truck belongs to a headquarters unit of the Eighth Gds Army. The 30 soldiers, who arrived, are believed to have been recruits since, according to previous information, Soviet units received recruits until the end of July 1951. The 40 troops seen leaving the depot were shipped to the processing camp at Jueterbog, from where they will be sent to the U.S.S.R. for demobilization.

 Comment. The information confirms the Soviet medical depot of the Eighth Gds Army, [REDACTED] in the former silk-spinning mill Hartung, Markersdorf. The trucks belong to headquarters units of the Eighth Gds Army.
